

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE MUSÉE D'ART CONTEMPORAIN EXPECTS RECORD CROWD AT TODAY'S OPEN HOUSE

Montréal, September 6, 1993. From 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. today, the Musée d'art contemporain invites the public to come and visit the magnificent PELLAN exhibition free of charge. The exhibition that has drawn crowds this summer will be welcoming its 50,000th visitor today - but no-one knows exactly when! The lucky individual will be presented with two tickets to Paris, courtesy of AIR CANADA and will also receive a copy of the beautiful PELLAN catalogue.

The PELLAN exhibition consists of over 150 brilliant and breathtaking paintings by one of Québec's great artists. This Labour Day is therefore a unique opportunity to appreciate a positive fiesta of colours!

WHAT? Open house - the PELLAN exhibition

WHERE? Musée d'art contemporain de Montréal
185 St. Catherine Street West,
Montréal
Tel.: 847-6212

WHEN? Monday, September 6, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

HOW? Place-des-Arts metro station

- 30 -

Information : Claude Guérin
"Open House" Coordinator
944-8740
847-6212