

NEO RAUCH

A surreal painting by Neo Rauch. On the left, a green wooden building with a window showing a person in a red shirt. In the center, a man in an orange shirt and white shorts is climbing a large, dark, abstract structure. To the right, a large, muscular, bearded man in a red loincloth stands on the structure, holding a long, white, wavy object. The background features a blue sky with a large, dark, abstract shape. The overall style is characteristic of Neo Rauch's work, blending elements of expressionism and surrealism.
