LAURENT GRASSO

Uraniborg

GALLERY(IES): GALLERY 1 > GALLERY 2 >

CURATOR(S): MARIE FRASER, MARTA GILI AND LAURENT GRASSO

FROM FEBRUARY 7, 2013 TO APRIL 28, 2013

The exhibition Laurent Grasso: Uraniborg, co-produced by the Musée d'art contemporain de Montréal and the Jeu de Paume in Paris, offers a unique foray into space and time. Videos, paintings from the Studies into the Past series, drawings, neons, objects and sculptures cohabit in a presentation conceived by the artist as a work in itself. Here, Grasso continues his exploration of space and temporality as he seeks to create what he calls a "false historical memory." In this in-between place where true and false intermingle, the all-pervading observation of the sky underlies a broader examination of seeing, watching and surveillance, at the same time as it opens up a path to possible worlds.

This exhibition is coproduced by the Jeu de Paume, Paris, and the Musée d'art contemporain de Montréal.
